

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES

CELERA BARNES SIGNS NLI TO RUN TRACK AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA-LOS ANGELES

Tri Valley League Female Track Athlete of the Year Celera Barnes has signed a National Letter of Intent to continue her education and her Track career at the University of California Los Angeles. Celera is the first Seraph Athlete to sign a NLI to attend UCLA on an athletic scholarship. Celera was the TVL champion in the 100 and 200 meters as well as being a member of the league champion 4 x 100 relay team. She is a nationally ranked runner and has competed in numerous national level Track meets in her high school career. Celera was a 3 year letter winner in Basketball before sitting out her senior year to concentrate on the Track season. She has registered one of the 10th fastest times in the United States this year in the 100 and came in 2nd at the prestigious New Balance National Indoor meet this year in New York. A standout in the classroom, Celera plans to pursue a Medical degree at UCLA.

